

Kids & Company's Accessible Feedback Policy

Kids & Company always welcomes your feedback! If you wish to provide feedback on our services, including our services to persons with disabilities, please let us know. Kids & Company will investigate and respond to all feedback relating to our services in a timely, thorough and objective manner. You can also provide feedback to any of our Center Directors verbally (by phone or in person), by email or written letter. Please refer to the locations tab on our website to obtain the contact information for each Center Director.
